

***** PRESS RELEASE *****

Stories Alive Presents

Captain Jake and the Search for the Red Queen

Join Captain Jake's Crew as he takes you on a journey to the high seas, in this rip-roaring adventure. Learn what it takes to be a pirate as we battle foes, try to keep the ship on course, avoid sea monsters and try to keep the captain out of the tavern; all in search of the elusive Red Queen.

Part historical romp, part interactive show, part tragic life story. Packed with historical facts, funny characters and strong female role models.

Eden Ballantyne is a historical storyteller and theatre performer. After years as an actor, live interpreter, street performer and children's entertainer, he has molded his skills to create an exciting new show, which will appeal to the entire family.

Where and when: Pleasance Courtyard, The Cellar.
2:15pm 2nd to 18th August , 60 minutes long.

Contacts: Eden Ballantyne (writer and performer), available for interviews.
e. eden@storiesalive.co.uk
t. 07901 611789

Website: <http://storiesalive.co.uk/>
Twitter: @StoriesAlive

To book review tickets for this show please contact the Pleasance Press Office:
0131 556 6557 or press@pleasance.co.uk