Teddy Bears' Picnic

Gav is a bear, not the grizzly type or the type you'd buy in a toyshop. He's the overweight hairy gay type, and he's had it with love, gay men and life in general. Join Gav as he meets others from the homosexual menagerie and goes to the Teddy Bears' Picnic.

New writing from Stories Alive that will make you laugh, groan and tug at your heart strings.

Eden Ballantyne is a storyteller and theatre performer. After years as an actor, street performer, drag queen and children's party entertainer, he is melding all his skills into one to create a show about gay bears. When it comes to Bears, Otters, Cubs, Wolves and the like, Eden was certainly no expert... But it's been one hell of a year finding out about all the animals in the gay jungle.
